Notwithstanding anything herein or in the GA Servicing Order to the contrary, this Order shall not waive or foreclose and is without prejudice to (i) any and all claims, causes of action and defenses that may be asserted by the Debtors or any party-in-interest (including the Creditors' Committee) for any and all past or future costs of compliance with the FRB Consent Order, DOJ/AG Settlement, the Order of Assessment ("Compliance Claims") against any and all parties, including, without limitation, claims for contribution and/or indemnification arising directly or indirectly, by contract or under common law, through subrogation or otherwise, (ii) all rights of AFI to object to any Compliance Claim on any and all bases and bring counterclaims against the Debtors for Compliance Claims, including asserting claims (x) that the costs of compliance in connection with the Compliance Claims are administrative expenses of the Debtors' estates pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 503(b) and (y) that AFI is relying on the Debtors'

costs of compliance in its decision to support operationally and financially the Debtors' efforts to sell the assets of the Debtors' estates on a going concern basis and maximize the value of the estates, and (iii) all rights of the Debtors or any party-in-interest (including the Creditors' Committee) to respond to any objections and contest any and all counterclaims asserted by AFI, provided, however, that in each case such claims shall not be resolved, waived or discharged by the Debtors without the consent of the Creditors' Committee or further order of the Court.
